CUT IN TROOPS STATIONED IN JAPAN IS CALLED 'DANGEROUS'

WARNING CABLED TO CONGRESS FROM GEN. DOUGLAS MACARTHUR

MILITARY CONTROLS WOULD BE WEAKENED IN KOREA AS WELL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Congress received from Gen. Douglas MacArthur today a warning that any attempt to cut Pacific forces below the 400,000 strength contemplated by July 1 would "weaken to a dangerous degree military controls over Japan and Korea."

A cable from the supreme commander in the Pacific, containing this warning, was laid before a senate committee by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, army chief of staff. Eisenhower appeared before the special senate military subcommittee to explain further the army's demobilization policies, which he had outlined in an informal session of representatives and senators Tuesday.

Many Men Released. Eisenhower told the committee the telegram from MacArthur had come in code and for this reason his exact words were retransmitted. MacArthur reported there were 1,168,000 soldiers under his command in December, that this will be reduced to 600,000 by Jan. 20 and then gradually cut to 400,000 on July 1. This would include the 200,000 in Japan and Korea.

Committee Chairman Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) interjected that Eisenhower had told the meeting Tuesday that army forces in the Pacific theater would be cut to 375,000 by July 1, or 25,000 less than MacArthur's estimate.

As Force Adjusted. Eisenhower said this represented an adjustment in air force totals, adding that MacArthur's command covered all troops for Japan, Korea, the Philippines, the Marianas, and Hawaii.

The MacArthur message gave assurance that his command would

Court Martial Is Ordered For GI's Agitating Release

HONOLULU, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Robert C. Richardson, Jr., today ordered court-martial for any soldier or officer in his Mid-Pacific command who continues agitation on the demobilization program.

Three enlisted men were confined to quarters pending investigation. Col. Wilson Gaddis, public relations officer, said no charges have been placed against the trio but their actions since General Eisenhower explained demobilization policy Tuesday are under investigation. Two had been active in demonstrations against a demobilization slowdown.

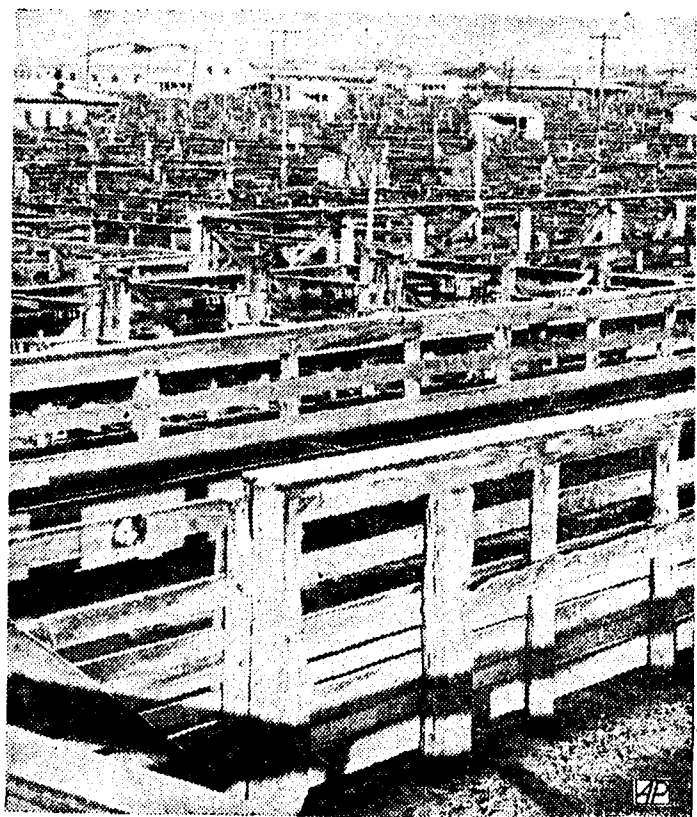

Leaders Singled Out. A directive which Richardson sent to commanders in the Mid-Pacific theater stated:

"It has come to my attention that there are certain leaders of enlisted men in this command that are continuing agitation on the demobilization program despite the announcement by General Eisenhower, chief of staff of the army.

"Not To Be Tolerated." "It is directed that you take full and complete measures to instruct these leaders, both officers and enlisted men, and all under your command that their agitation will not be tolerated.

"Enlisted men have had an opportunity to present their grievances which have been met by Eisenhower's announcement and no further mass meetings, agitations or like actions will be permitted. Commanding officers will court-martial offenders for disobedience of orders."

Three Weeks Expected. "Civilization requires from you after this unending of barbarism a quiet which will be a sort of supreme warning," De Menthon said. His accusation ran the gamut of German crimes. He said of 250,000

CROWN CENTRAL OIL CO. ENDS DISPUTE WITH PAY INCREASE

HOUSTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Employees of Crown Central Refinery at Pasadena were working under a new contract calling for 18 per cent wage increase today, while the company's oil workers were on strike.

Signing of the Crown Central contract was announced by E. W. Johnson, president of the Oil Workers International Union Local 227, bargaining agent for the refinery, and was acknowledged by an official of the company.

NAZI WAR LORDS BLANCH WITH FEAR AS FRENCH PROSECUTOR BITTERLY DENOUNCES CRIMES

By JAMES F. KING
NUERNBERG, Jan. 17.—(AP)—France asked death today for 22 ringleaders of the Nazi regime and for punishment of hundreds of thousands of members of German terror organizations.

Francis De Menthon, French prosecutor, denounced Hitlerism and all it stands for with a fervor that brought fear to the faces of Hermann Goering and other prisoners before the international military tribunal.

UNO URGED TO TAKE CONTROL OF OUTPUT OF ARMS, "A" BOMB
PRESIDENT OF WORLD PEACE BODY SPEAKS TO GENERAL SESSION

LONDON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—United Nations control of the entire world armament industry, including atomic bomb factories, was proposed to the UNO general assembly today by Foreign Minister Jan G. Masaryk of Czechoslovakia.

Jobs and problems piled up for the assembly as it began the second week of its existence with a sobering speech by Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin of Great Britain.

Bevin said Britain was already negotiating to place three of her five old mandates from the League of Nations under the projected new United Nations trusteeship system. Belgian officials said they would announce similar intentions for their two mandates, Ruanda and Urundi, in East Africa.

Delegates applauded Masaryk loudly several times. Nasrullah Entezam, Iranian delegate, said Iran's appeal for help in settling her dispute with Soviet Russia over political conditions in Northern Iran might formally presented the UNO security council tomorrow.

Bevin said the three mandates Britain proposed to convert into UNO trusteeships were Tanganyika, Togoland and the Cameroons. He said action on Palestine was being withheld pending results of a British-American inquiry into the Jewish-Arab issue there.

The fifth mandate is Trans-Jordan, which Bevin said was to be made independent eventually.

Jap Islands Problem. The United States is primarily concerned in the trusteeship question because of the numerous American-conquered Japanese islands in the Pacific.

Bevin urged the UNO to consider what assistance it may give UNRRA in dealing with the widespread food shortage, to continue the international labor office and to build up a powerful working organization to support the agencies necessary to maintain peace.

The only restriction Bevin attached to the proposed conversion of the African mandates into trusteeships was that the terms of the trusteeships should be, "in our view, generally satisfactory."

Strikes Labeled Inflation Aids By Government

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Government economists said today that in general current strikes are increasing inflationary pressures.

But some officials expressed the opinion widespread and prolonged work stoppages could have the opposite effect eventually and thus cause prices for consumer goods to drop.

OPA and Commerce Department analysts who asked that their names not be used said that beyond a doubt strikes now in progress are exerting great pressure on prices.

"The national immediate tendency of families of workers out on strike," one commerce official asserted, "is to prepare for an emergency. This means that although future income is uncertain, money available is spent to lay in food supplies, clothing and other essential items."

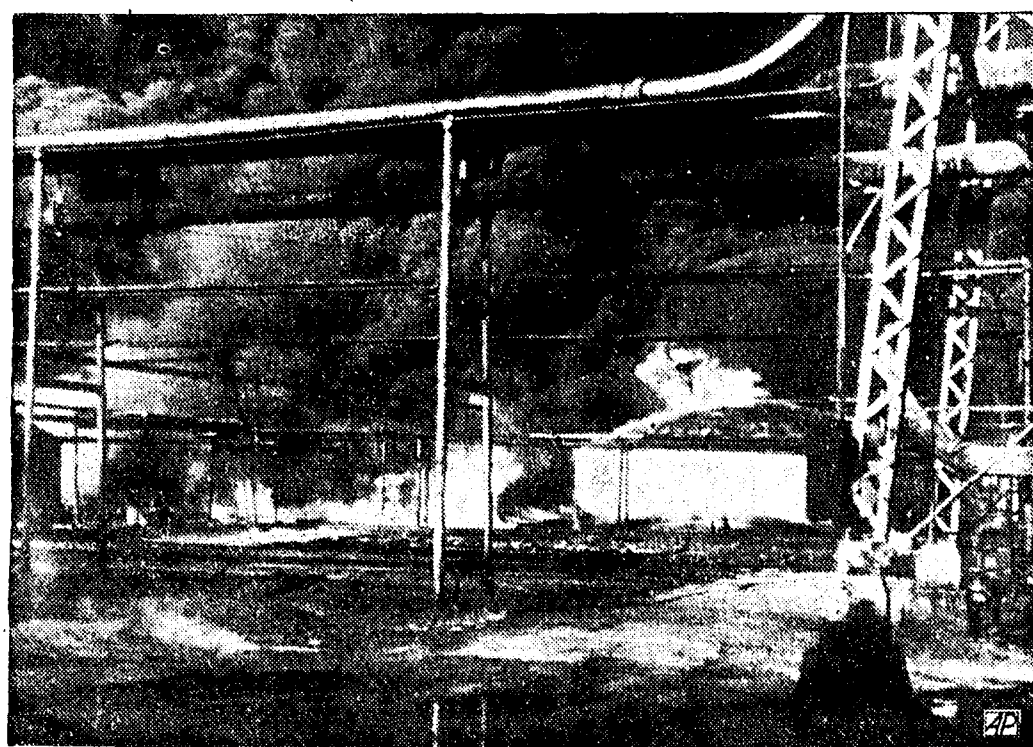

The 11 members were grouped around a horseshoe table. Nearby was Nasrullah Entezam, representing Iran, whose dispute with Russia will furnish the first test of the new peace organization's effectiveness. Entezam may throw the problem into the lap of the council tomorrow.

Recalling the protracted controversy over veto powers at San Francisco, UNO delegates expressed the view it was unlikely Russia could prevent an airing of the controversy. Many also expressed the opinion that under the charter, Russia would have to refrain from voting on any recommendation the council might make for a peaceful settlement. However, should the controversy reach a point where it came to deciding on the use of force or some kind of sanctions to compel a settlement, Russia would have a veto.

Edward R. Stettinius, the American member, declared whether the body "succeeds or not depends on the manner in which the members of the security council discharge the special obligations which they have assumed."

"This is the obligation to agree so that the council may be able to act and act effectively," he said. "The council, he said, 'must see that peace is kept in fact.'"

Leaders In Steel Fight Again Meet; Dispute Unsettled

By HAROLD W. WARD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—President Truman gave the two principals in the threatened steel strike their last chance today to work out an agreement before he proposes a way to end the deadlock.

The President gave CIO President Philip Murray and Benjamin Fairless, U. S. Steel head, until this afternoon to settle their wage dispute.

Should they fail, he said, he will step in with "a proposal in the public interest."

Mr. Truman urged the two men, just before they left the White House last night after a day of fruitless talks, to "sleep over it and pray over it and do their utmost to get together and come back again at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon."

This focusing on the White House meeting tended to divert top attention from new administration efforts to find a solution for the meat packing strike. Secretary of Labor Schwelb invited management and labor representatives to an afternoon meeting in his office.

The steel proposal Mr. Truman has in mind is his own secret, but there was some speculation it might involve his personal judgment, on what would be a reasonable adjustment of the rival wage stands.

Can Reject Proposal. Ross said government seizure "has not entered into the discussion." He also reported that Fairless and Murray could accept or

Security Council Holding Historic First Conference

By FLORA LEWIS

LONDON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council met today and was declared "fully constituted" to begin the task of maintaining peace in the world, with force if necessary.

The 11 members were grouped around a horseshoe table. Nearby was Nasrullah Entezam, representing Iran, whose dispute with Russia will furnish the first test of the new peace organization's effectiveness. Entezam may throw the problem into the lap of the council tomorrow.

OHIO REFINERY IN RUINS AFTER FIRE, BLASTS KILL THREE

PINDLAY, O., Jan. 17.—(AP)—A large section of the Midwest Refineries lay in ruins today, the aftermath of a spectacular fire which set off a series of storage tank explosions and sent an air raid attack to the disaster in which three employees lost their lives.

C. A. Peterson, superintendent of the refinery plant, said 11 of some 50 storage tanks containing gasoline, kerosene, oil and asphalt blew up in the blaze and estimated damage at $200,000.

The dead, trapped when the fire broke out in the refinery's cracking unit, were listed as: Carl Cramer, 35, Harold McRill, 46 and Don Winstead, 42.

Dr. Byron Voorhees, Hancock county coroner, reported the first blast occurred while asphalt, mixed with a solvent, was being poured into a tank near the cracking plant.

"War" Warning Debated. When Kimmel said that he had never seen the term "war warning" used in a naval message before, Committee Counsel Seth Richardson asked why Kimmel didn't ask Adm. Harold H. Stark, then chief of naval operations, what was meant by the "extraordinary term."

Because of this, he said he was not influenced to order the fleet to drop all training and go on an all-out security basis.

RUSSIA REPORTED TO BE SETTING UP FIRM CONTROL OF KURILES

By ALEX H. SINGLETON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Russia was reported today to be establishing herself firmly in the strategic Kurile and chain (linking the approaches to Siberia).

It was from a rendezvous of some 1,100 Chinese troops of the new sixth army left Shanghai for Manchuria aboard six American LSTs.

Secret Paper Seized. (From Hennen, Associated Press correspondent John Roderick radioed in a delayed dispatch dated yesterday that Communist headquarters claimed to have come into possession of an order issued Jan. 2 directing government forces to occupy a favorable position before the Armistice was effective.)

The National Military Council here asserted 5,000 Communists Monday seized control of the Manchurian port of Yingkou after a seven-hour fight.

It said on Tuesday 40,000 Communists attacked Taitan and Shantung on the Tientsin-Pukow railroad and other points on the railroad in Hopei and Kiangsu provinces.

Fleet Not Put At Pearl Harbor For Defense—Kimmel

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel said today he had never felt that the Pacific Fleet was based at Pearl Harbor to defend Hawaii but was there to conduct offensive operations in the event of war with Japan.

The 1941 fleet commander made the statement to the committee of house inquiry committee about the "war warning" he received from the Navy Department on Nov. 27, 1941, 10 days before the Japanese struck Pearl Harbor.

The warning, he said, added little, if anything, to previous messages.

This was no warning of a surprise attack by the Japanese on Pearl Harbor, he contended.

HOUSE COMMITTEE TO ACT ON PRESIDENT'S FACT-FINDING PLAN

GROUP REFUSES, IN TIE VOTE, TO PASS WEAKENED MEASURE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The house labor committee agreed today to act before next Tuesday on legislation requested by President Truman for fact finding boards to settle major industrial disputes.

The agreement was announced to the house by Acting Chairman Randolph (D-Va.) after the committee had refused by a 7 to 7 tie vote to approve a modified version of such legislation.

The modified proposal was offered by Rep. Louis (R-Ind.), who told the committee "the heat is on" from voters throughout the country for legislative action to help prevent strikes.

Members "Feel Responsibility." Randolph told the house the committee members "feel very deeply that it is our individual and collective responsibility to act courageously on these problems."

The modified version would have denied the proposed boards the power of subpoena and also would have eliminated suggested 30-day cooling-off period during which strikes would be banned.

It was offered by Rep. Landis (R-Ind.) during hearings on legislation dealing with return to the States of the U. S. employment service.

Landis, five other Republicans and one Democrat voted against the Landis substitute. Seven Democrats voted against it.

AUTO WAGE TALKS RESUMED WITH NO SETTLEMENT SEEN

DETROIT, Jan. 17.—(AP)—CIO United Auto Workers negotiators and Ford Motor Company officials resumed contact discussions today, but little progress was expected toward closing the two-cent gap between the wage increase offered by the company and the one demanded by the union.

The company, whose offer of a 17 1/2 cent per hour boost was rejected by the UAW, was believed to have no intention of increasing the amount to meet the 19 1/2 cent raise suggested by President Truman's fact-finding board in the General Motors Corp. wage dispute.

Similar amount was demanded by the union's Ford affiliate, GM President C. E. Wilson denied a statement by John S. Bugas, Ford industrial relations director, that Ford's average pay stood nine cents higher than GM's.

Arbitration Of Its Strike Offered By Electrical Union

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Albert J. Fitzgerald, head of the CIO electrical workers, offered today to submit to arbitration the wage issue in the three-day-old strike of 200,000 workers against three electrical manufacturing firms.

Fitzgerald made the offer before the senate labor committee, where he was called a witness on President Truman's proposal to establish fact-finding boards in labor disputes.

Replying to a question by Senator Morse (R-Ore.), Fitzgerald said the union never had refused arbitration on its demand for a 32 day wage increase. He added that he was willing to have arbitration start from scratch, without regard for prevailing wage increase offers in other industries and the amount requested by the union.

Fitzgerald's offer may possibly open the way for settlement of the strike which has shut down 79 plants of the General Electric Co.

MADRID SEEMINGLY PROSPEROUS; LUXURIES AVAILABLE—FOR HIGH PRICES, MACKENZIE DISCOVERS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP World Traveler

MADRID, Jan. 17.—(AP)—It would be easy for the visitor in Madrid to leap to the conclusion Spain is a land flowing with milk and honey, there's such a plenitude of the good things of life available in the capital—at a price.

People of means are so accustomed to abundance that amazement was expressed by residents with whom I was lunching in a deluxe hotel because the usual excellent beefsteaks weren't available for that meal. The menu was loaded with all sorts of other food, but it happens there's a beef shortage.

What was true of food is also largely true of both necessities and luxuries in other lines. In short, up to the time Mrs. Mack and I left New York at the end of November, probably no city in America had recovered sufficiently from war strain to produce such luxurious meals as Madrid can serve.

But Spain also has her troubles and her prosperity is spotty. Among other things, the cost of living has risen so high that people of small means are having a hard time.

On the whole Spain's relative economic position among the European countries is as a witness to well among the other neutral states of Switzerland, Portugal and Sweden.

Potentially, Spain may be better off than we are.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE with "bag and baggage" and their families apparently for a long stay. These officials cannot be identified by name. Agreement upon Russian occupation of these islands, stretching like a giant semicircle across the entrance to the Sea of Okhotsk, was reached at the Potsdam conference.

It appeared likely that President Truman had the Kuriles in mind Tuesday when he told his news conference it was not necessarily true that the United States would be alone in seeking independent control of former enemy-held islands.

This country, at least publicly, has not listed the Kuriles as among the islands regarded as necessary to its defense.

"No Army" June 1 If Discharge Rate Kept War Secretary Says

MANILA, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Secretary of War Patterson said today it was necessary to slow down the October-December rate of discharge or the Army at all by June 1.

Patterson at a press conference stated that nearly 3,500,000 men had been demobilized the last three months of 1945 and, had the rate been maintained, the American Army would have been only a memory.

He reported that the question of giving overseas veterans extra points in addition to those they had gained before the Sept. 2 freeze "is under consideration." There are no present plans for further consideration of married men or those with less than three children so far as he knows.

PEARL HARBOR

"We had no unimportant surface units that we could afford to sacrifice," he said. "If they had been put out, they would have been destroyed by the attacking force."

Kimmel told congressional investigators today how the Japanese succeeded in launching aerial torpedoes in the shallow waters of Pearl Harbor, a feat which navy experts in 1941 considered impossible.

The former Pacific fleet commander, detailing his own account of the Japanese attack against the naval base Dec. 7, 1941, said the Nipponese simply attached wooden fins to the old-style torpedoes to do the job.

"That was the device the Japanese used," Kimmel said, "a device that the brains of our navy department who had been working on the problem had been unable to discover."

Previous testimony had disclosed that the officials entrusted with the defense of the naval base had felt relatively secure against aerial torpedo attacks since they knew of none that would operate successfully in the shallow waters there. The average depth of that anchorage is 30 feet, with 40-foot channels.

Kimmel has testified that damage against ships at the base probably would have been slight if the Japanese hadn't been able to use the torpedoes.

Kimmel's third day before the senate-house investigation group opened with committee Counsel Seth W. Richardson about through with his questions.

Rep. Murphy (D-Pa.) said he was not satisfied so far with the testimony on Kimmel's attitude toward a war warning message from Washington on Nov. 27, 1941, ten days before the Japanese attack.

Took War Steps. "Admiral Kimmel called this note watered down and said it didn't convey what it should in the way of warning," Murphy told reporters. "Yet, after he received it, he took four war steps."

Murphy said Kimmel (1) got set for an expected mass submarine attack, (2) ordered all contacted submarines to be bombed "against his orders from Washington," (3) sent Adm. William F. Halsey to sea with a task force to "shoot anything in sight" and (4) drew up a war warning plan "which was brought up to date on December 6."

Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) told reporters he thought the committee might finish with Kimmel this week, and then turn to Lt. Gen. Walter C. Short, army commander in Hawaii at the time of the Pearl Harbor raid.

Under Richardson's questioning yesterday, Kimmel stuck to his contention that he just didn't get from Washington information, he said, was "absolutely correct" that pointed to an attack on Pearl Harbor.

In any event, the retired admiral asserted, "the fleet was on the alert."

"When one-fourth to one-half of the anti-aircraft guns open fire at once, and the rest of them chimed in—the whole outfit—in four to seven minutes, I don't believe you can beat that," he said.

ELECTRIC

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Peace efforts in the three-day old strike of 200,000 electrical workers were at a standstill today with leaders apparently awaiting the outcome of the steel industry negotiations.

With all operations shut down at 79 plants of General Electric, Westinghouse and General Motors, (electrical division) in 16 states, no overtures for resumption of wage negotiations were made by the companies or by CIO United Electrical Workers Union, which called the walkout in support of demands for a $2 a day wage boost.

SUPERINTENDENT OF EMHOUSE SCHOOLS SPEAKER AT ROTARY

Professing a faith in today's youth and calling for the cooperation of parents, churches and schools in solving juvenile problems, Supt. E. C. Butler of the Emhouse public school system addressed the weekly luncheon meeting of Rotary Club Wednesday afternoon in the Navarro Hotel.

President Clifford Cate, who is moving to Paris, Texas, presided for the last time and turned the gavel over to John Corley, first vice-president. Mayor John C. Callahan presented Cate with a wrist watch as a farewell gift from the club.

"I believe, as a whole, we have the best boys and girls we have ever had," Butler said. "Those of them who are actually 'going to the dogs' are being led there by some adult. The remedy does not rest in legislation but in proper education at home, in the church and in the school."

Butler suggested a revival of old-time discipline and courage to solve the youth problem. "You have a real problem here in Corsicana," he pointed out. "Many boys 10 and 12 years of age and younger are roving your streets. To a certain extent, we must hold the parents responsible. And we must hold ourselves responsible, too. This problem belongs to all of us."

The Emhouse High School Choral Club, directed by Miss Merle Craddock, sang three selections, "Can't Begin to Tell You," "Kentucky Babe," and "The Lord's Prayer."

David Ralston, chairman, introduced the program participants. Visitors included W. J. Tammie, Luther A. Johnson, Jr., J. Winters, and W. H. Smith, who announced a memorial service for Navarro County's missing and dead of World War II was to be held January 24 at the First Methodist Church.

Maj. Jas. H. Perry Is Visiting Here

Maj. James H. Perry has arrived in Corsicana after serving 13 months in the Pacific to visit his father, Frank L. Perry, 602 North Beaton Street, while on terminal leave. He plans to enter the University of Chicago.

Major Perry, who joined the Army in December of 1939, served as executive officer of the Fifth Fighter Command and at various other stations in the Pacific. He wears three battle stars.

WORLD UNITY DEMANDS WE NOW HAVE BASIC MORAL LAW*

Provisions of San Francisco Will Not Work Without Law of Sinai -- Eternal Principles There Established For Man's Guidance -- Individual Conduct and International Morality Require This

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

We think today of "One World." The title of Willkie's book caught popular imagination because people had long been thinking in terms of the unity of the human race. The inconceivable speed of air transportation has now led them to feel that what they had long cherished as a dream might perhaps be a reality.

But one world presupposes one basic law, and regardless of what international organizations may effect in the matter of legal codes, the Ten Commandments, which God delivered to Moses on Mt. Sinai, must ever remain the foundation upon which man-made laws are built. These immutable principles of life, first written on the hearts of humanity before ever they were engraved on tablets of stone, constitute the moral prerequisites of individual, national, and international well-being.

Legacy of the Desert
During these stressful days, when it seems that the fate of humanity were hanging in the balance, I find myself wishing often that I might go again to Sinai, with its sublime mountains, its awesome wastes of sand and silt, its mirages, its Arabs and oases, and most of all, its majestic Mountain of the Law, Jebel Musa. Above all, I want to see my friends, the monks in the ancient Monastery of Saint Catherine, one to talk over the inter-ests we have in common. Just to lie at noon-tide, under the shadow of a great rock in a weary land, and to muse upon the long past, and upon our present life, would bring serenity and serenity to my overborne spirit.

The desert has a way of laying a quieting hand on man's fevered brow. In the clear air of the vast waste spaces, life is seen more clearly, and in better proportion. In this old wilderness, the Voice that spoke there thirty-five hundred years ago, seems more real and intelligible.

Amid thunders and lightnings and earthquakes in the mountains, the great prophet Moses transacted a people's business with God. The basic code of human behavior which resulted from this meeting begins with a declaration of its divine authority. These laws stand apart from all other enactments because of their Divine sanction and their Divine enabling. They are sound and compelling, not just because they have worked in human experience, but because God is their author.

How to Approach God
The first section of the Decalogue deals with the Godward side of life. Commandments one through four tell men what they must do and what they must avoid if they would approach God with reverence and serve Him with fidelity. The first two of these commandments put the stamp of Divine disapproval on idolatry. Man is to have no other god before the true and living God, and he is not to debase the majesty of the Heavenly One by prostrating himself before a debasing idol.

Modern men have denied God his first place. They have spurned and flouted Him and have gone astray after idols of gold, idols of sensuality, idols of pleasure-seeking, idols of materialism, idols of selfishness and unbrotherliness. Let us confess, in deep contrition, that our generation, mad with the pride of "intellectualism" and power, has tried to wrest the crown of life's sovereignty from the brow of the living God.

"Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain." The name of the God we worship is not to be bandied about by some careless ignoramus describing the day's game of golf or calling down maledictions upon people with whom he does not agree with him in politics or social procedure.

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy." Millions work every Sabbath to keep selfish vanities amused, to make it possible for them to flit about from place to place at breakneck speed. If we would use this one day in seven for rest and quiet, the whole humor of humanity might well be changed within a year.

Our Brother's Keeper
The second half of the Decalogue—Commandments five through ten—deals with man's relationship with man. Five of all they tell us, Get right with the parents from whose loins you came. Sound religion not only begins at home. It begins in the blood streams. From this the commandments go on to deal with murder, with impurity, with theft. If we cannot be secure in our persons, in our homes, in the right to keep and use what we earn, and last of all in our reputations, then martyrs have died in vain, and what we have regarded as the wisdom of statesmen has been the babbling of empty-headed visionaries.

The Decalogue ends with a prohibition against coveting, or desiring what belongs to another; the root of imperialism and war. Against uspirituality, irreverence, rapacity, and list the Ten Commandments sound their stern warning.

The wise of the world are insisting today that what our time most needs is what the Jewish refugees under Moses need and achieved—a clear, vivid sense of the reality of God and of His will for human beings.

SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS
Laws are the sovereigns of sovereigns.

—Louis XIV.
Good laws make it easier to do right, and harder to do wrong.
—Gladstone.

In vain we call old notions fudge, And bend our consciences to our dealing. The Ten Commandments will not budge, And stealing still continues stealing.
—Lowell.

He is rich who knows when he has enough.
—Lao Tse.

I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved, —Psalms 119:47.

That very law which moulds a heart, And bids it trickle from its source, That law preserves the earth a sphere, And guides the planets in their course.
—Rogers.

Laws are the silent assessors of God.
—Alger.

HIGHER MILK PRICES LIKELY TO COME OUT OF NEW DISCUSSIONS

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(P)—

The government is scheduling a series of meetings which may result eventually in higher milk prices. These increases—possibly months away—would be two cents a quart during the spring and summer and three cents a quart during the winter months.

The first of the hearings will open at New York today. The second will be held at the Boston milk market next month.

Similar sessions are planned in most large cities where dairymen's prices are regulated by the agriculture department under federal milk marketing orders.

Today's gathering comes a week after it becomes known that Secretary of Agriculture Anderson is urging an immediate hike of six cents a pound in OPA butter price proposals to raise producer prices of fluid milk when the government's $525,000,000 a year dairy production subsidy program is ended.

Handless Vet Puts On Ring With Hook

PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 17.—(P)—"Look at the slick way he put that ring on my finger. Not a fumble!"

Happily, a WAC medical technician, Corp. Ruth Spaulding Langstaff, held tight to the hooks which Pfc. Robert Langstaff uses for hands, after their marriage last night.

Langstaff lost his hands when a machine gun blew up in France. He and his bride, 32, whose home is in Anderson, Ind., met in a hospital here.

FOREIGN POLICE JOBS

Defeated Europe will obviously have to be policed for a long time, in order to reap the fruits of American victory. There seems to be no tendency now to repeat the folly of the last war, when the job was only half done. Thousands of Americans will have to be settled there for considerable periods in armies of occupation. In order to make such tenure as tolerable as possible, the Army is inclined to let the families of our occupation forces go abroad to be with their men. Such at least is said to be the present plan, and it would involve the transfer of nearly 100,000 American "dependents" to foreign countries in the next few months.

This is a reasonable and humane procedure, but obviously involves difficulties of various kinds. Welcomed in many cases as a sort of lark and a fine opportunity to get acquainted with the Old World, it might turn out very differently from expectations. One thing to be remembered is that life abroad is not what it was before the war.

HITLER FOOLISHNESS

It is rather disconcerting, at this late date, to have "secret letters" revealed which announce that Adolf Hitler's spirit will rise again from his grave and make it clear that he was right. Such declarations, though not taken seriously by sensible people, tend to spread among credulous persons a spooky feeling that, as Hamlet remarked, "there are more things in Heaven and earth than are dreamed of in our philosophy." Once rid of Hitler, the greatest disturber of the peace in modern times, sensible people want to quit thinking about him and to focus their minds on things more rational and profitable.

There may, however, be eruptions of such foolishness again and again among imaginative and weak-minded people. And perhaps there is nothing that can be done about it—unless it is a return to active speculation on the Atom Bomb. There are, however, in both cases, more wholesome things to concentrate on.

NYLON CONQUEST

The motto of our own dear country seems to have changed rather suddenly from victory to nylons. And indeed there is another famous victory in such procedure. We may not have been fighting primarily to a new and more enduring vision of delicate hosiery on shapely limbs; but so far as may be judged from the newspaper advertising and the dry goods counters, there is a sort of obvious connection.

Some dull-souled men, out of touch with the times, may not have noticed the tremendous surge of silken stockings now beginning to flaunt themselves in the eyes of a dazzled world, but they will soon wake up to the situation. The flaunting of nylon hosiery in millions of pairs throughout this great, rich country, while from one point of view nothing to brag about, is still a sign of indomitable success in an otherwise rather sad and impoverished world.

A reasonable prediction is that Gen. Franco will find the going in 1946 considerably tougher than in 1945. Few tears will be shed if the New Year sees the final disappearance of this dictator, who supported the Axis and was supported by it.

THE DIFFERENCE

A sick man never seems to care whether he is sick or not. What he wants is all to see just how sick a man is he.

A sick man whimpers, making plain out all that he is in pain. He wants constant waiting on. Man likes looking woebegone.

Woman, fevered or in pain, Beautiful would still remain. Lady sick-bed wants care Given to finger nails and hair.

Lady sick-bed must be Fit for visitors to see. Lady through an illness spell Still insists on looking well. (Copyright, 1946, Edgar A. Guest.)

THE NAVY GOES MODERN

Even the navy admits times have changed. The sailor suit, with its blouse, bell-bottom trousers, pan-cake hat and all, is to give way to a modern uniform modeled after army dress, including the popular "General Ike" belted jacket. In fact, the new attire is now being tried out by 2,500 sailors acting as fashion models in the Atlantic and Pacific fleets and in shore stations. Trousers that were bell-like, for ease in rolling up for deck swabbings, are to be regular style since dangers are now donned for ship cleanings. The blouse so unbefitting to the plump was tight to avoid tangling with sailing vessels' rigging. The square collar was evolved from a bib worn as protection against greased pigtails of olden days. The substitute is a modern army style shirt.

The knotted neckerchief is said to be a survival of a mourning dress detail adopted by the British at Lord Nelson's death and carried over into American ranks. The new style tie retains the black color, but will be the ordinary four-in-hand. The old plate-shaped hat comes from brimmed straw worn as sun protectors in the tropics and will be replaced by the Admiral Mitscher work cap and visored headgear, like that of petty officers, with the present white cap retained for summer. Silhouettes of sailor and soldier will be practically identical, but blue will remain the seaman's color and khaki the army's.

With the tradition-conscious navy going in for such radical innovations, it looks as if the only thing one can be sure won't change is change itself.

EDUCATING FOR PEACE

It is a good sign when men of many countries sit down together and discuss anything. When they put their minds to devising an educational program for peace to be spread throughout the world, there is hope—especially if the men know something about education. Of such a character was a symposium held recently at the New School for Social Research in New York City. The school's new president, Bryn J. Hovde, pointed to the new United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization as a medium for exchange of educational ideals. Archibald MacLeish, former assistant secretary of State, said the main job of UNO was to educate the world for an eventual world government. Galo Plaza, Ecuadorian ambassador to the United States, insisted there must be free exchange of all knowledge throughout the world. Henri Bonnet, French ambassador to the United States, and a teacher at the school during the German occupation of his homeland, advocated educating public opinion of adults as well as school-age youth.

These are wide visioned plans culled from a variety of backgrounds. But men must dream vastly if wars are to be outlawed.

WORN ABOVE THE KNEE

English women have some cause for rejoicing. Soon they are to have their collets made of rubber—synthetic to be sure, but rubber, heretofore under "austerity" these have been fashioned of metal with disastrous results to stocking tops. And what are collets? Didn't you know? British for garters, the round variety.

Announces For Commissioner Precinct No. 4

To the people of Navarro County: You can't imagine the grand feeling I get making preparations to come home to the people I love. I am aware of the hardships you have gone through to make it possible for me to return to God's Country, the good old U. S. A., to receive that white piece of paper that will give me the privilege to continue the work I had started before I was called to the colors. Now that the normal ways of living are coming back, it shows a splendid picture in the process of improvement. I will be happy to be home soon. Yours truly, B. L. (Beldon) ENGLISH (Paid Pol. Adv.)

PNEUMONIA CAUSES MANY DEATHS FOR FIRST TEN MONTHS

Pneumonia caused over 1,984 deaths during the first 10 months of the past year in Texas, a reduction over the previous year but still too high, according to Dr. Will Miller, acting director of the Corsicana Health Department. "Pneumonia is caused by a germ called the pneumococcus, which many of us have lurking in our throats ready to start trouble when our resistance to it is lowered," he said. "We can keep up our resistance by avoiding undue fatigue and avoiding unnecessary exposure to extreme weather conditions. When we go out into the cold, additional wraps should be worn, sufficient to protect us. Keeping the temperatures of our homes as low as is consistent with comfort will greatly lessen the difficulties encountered in adjusting ourselves to the cold when we go out."

Another method of prevention in pneumonia is not to neglect a cold, for the common cold often results in pneumonia when neglected. A person with a severe cold should stay at home, and call his physician for advice if temperature persists or the cold lingers on. He should follow his physician's advice until the cold has disappeared, Dr. Miller continued.

"The successful treatment of a pneumonia case often depends upon starting treatment very early. That is why a physician should be called at once when pneumonia is suspected. A patient may really have begun pneumonia when he thinks it is only a cold. If the physician's advice is sought, he will have an opportunity to start treatment early if pneumonia occurs in such cases," he concluded.

Good News, Kids! Spinach Will Be Scarce This Year

AUSTIN, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The United States department of agriculture forecasts for spring an increase in yield of Texas beets and onions, but a drop in the spinach and cabbage as compared with 1945 figures.

Indications, said USDA, point to a 1,245,000 bushel winter beet crop, which is about 36,000 bushels larger than last year. The report noted that early crops showed considerable tip burn and were badly off color.

Texas spinach supply for the entire season is expected to be about 7 per cent less than 1945. Rall shipments to date are about 15 per cent under comparable period in 1945.

Cabbage production of 150,000 tons this year is 15,800 tons under last year's figure. USDA expects active onion planting to start in North Texas about mid-January and continue through most of February. Acres intended for onions in California, Arizona, Louisiana, Texas and Georgia is 74 per cent greater than last year's harvested acreage, resulting largely from a larger acreage in Central and North Texas, where unfavorable weather prevented growers from planting about 60 per cent of the acreage planned for 1945, USDA said.

U. S. GOVERNMENT NOW EMPLOYING MANY VETERANS

Employment of veterans by the Federal Government through the U. S. Civil Service in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi for the month of December, 1945, totaled 2948, as against 1941 for the month of November, 1945, according to a report made today by W. C. Galloway. This represents an increase of 1007 veterans placed over the previous month. For Texas, 781 for Louisiana and 300 for Mississippi. During the month of December, the report further shows that of the 2948 veterans securing Federal employment, 2541 were veterans of World War II, and 100 were veterans of other wars. For the 12 months of 1945, a total of 20,520 veterans were placed in Federal employment. This total for 1945, compared with 10,770 placed during the 12 months of 1944, represents an increase of 9,750. Easy, Convenient, Cheap—Just Phone Your Want Ads to 163.

MACKENZIE

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE off than present conditions indicate. Last year's fierce drought not only resulted in heavy crop failures but emptied reservoirs and thus deprived the country of much water power. Furthermore, the nation's transport systems are run down, and heavy imports are needed.

Favorable weather this year will do much to improve the economic situation.

The black market is having a field day in Spain, just as it is in other European countries. If you have the cash you can buy most anything you want. A first class lunch or dinner is from three to five dollars, and you can spend a lot more if you add a few frills. If you are keeping house your eggs will cost from $2 to $2.20 per dozen, butter $2.20 a pound, rice (a staple food here) 80 cents a pound, veni $1.30 a pound, pork $1.25, lamb $1.30 and so on. Clothing isn't so bad, for you can get a good tailor made suit for $100 and a ready made one for from $30 to $50. Middle priced shoes are about $10 and first class ones are $20.

MOSE BLUMROSEN URGES CITIZENS TO PAY POLL TAX

Pointing out the primary elections, general election in November, and the possibility of other local balloting during 1946, Mose Blumrosen, Republican county chairman, urges all citizens to pay poll taxes before the time expires January 31.

The Republican leader intimated that there is the possibility of a Republican slate being put out in the general elections in Texas. With the returning of the boys from the armed forces who can vote without poll taxes, considerable more interest in elections are anticipated during the year. Petitions may be presented for a commissioner's court during the year, although no official announcement has been made. Numerous aspirants have announced their candidacies in the approaching Democratic primaries.

CATTLE

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE day to bring the company and CIO handlers union to negotiations. The livestock handlers are seeking a 25-cent an hour pay hike, as are members of the United Packing House Workers (CIO) who have struck the Fort Worth Armour and Company plant and the Ratliff Pure Foods Products Company.

The strike of the 2350 members of the unions here continued peaceful and orderly today, its second

TWO CALIFORNIA COWHANDS LEADING IN RODEO EVENTS

DENVER, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Two hard-riding California cowhands, Gene Rambo of Shandon and Wag Blessing of Burbank, moved into the lead today for top money in the National Western Stockshow Rodeo events.

Blessing took first place in last night's show in Brahman steer riding and bareback bronc-busting while Rambo won the calf roping contest.

Other cowboys in the high-point bracket include Buster Ivory, Barstow, Calif.; Peter Decker, Roswell, N. M.; Bob Estes, Blair, Tex.; Walt Baughman, Archer City, Tex., and Frank Finley, Phoenix, Ariz.

L. M. Pexton, general manager of the Denver Union Stock Yard Company, predicted total sales of cattle and sheep during the show would reach $3,500,000.

day, and pickets still walked around the stock pens and the Armour and Ratliff plants. At only one other stockyard in the nation South St. Paul, are the livestock handlers on strike, resulting in a complete stoppage of livestock shipments as suffered at the Fort Worth market.

The unstruck Swift and Company plant here continued normal operations today as did several other smaller packinghouses where the CIO union does not represent the workers. Shipments of supplies to the private pens of these companies, however, were light because of bad road conditions.

OIL

This is the first contract in the oil industry to be signed carrying the retroactive feature, Johnson said.

Navy Operates Plants. Crown Central was the first refinery in this area to go on the 40-hour week. Later the CIO unions throughout the nation struck for a 30 per cent wage increase and the navy seized the plants. The men returned to work under navy operation.

Contracts have since been signed with the Sinclair refinery here, and 17 other plants in the nation. Capt. W. B. Gillespie, U. S. Navy, said yesterday that the navy arrived here yesterday by plane. They were sent out as a "task force" by Vice Adm. Ben Morrell, naval officer in charge of the seized refinery plants, to close contracts between unions and management.

At the President's Present. O. A. Knight of Fort Worth, president of the OWIU, also arrived here last night.

With the naval officials from Washington was John C. Quilly of New York, manager of industrial relations for the Shell Oil Company.

The naval task force, union officials and management of the Shell refinery at Deer Park will confer on a contract settlement today, it was said. P. E. Foster, local manager of the Shell refinery, will meet with the party.

Also to participate in the negotiations will be Comdr. F. A. Westphal, naval officer for this district in charge of the seized refinery plants.

Port Arthur Next. After the Shell conference, the party expects to move to the Beaumont-Port Arthur area to clean up contracts with the Magnolia, Gulf and Texas Company plants.

It was reported that the task force was sent out to get action. Washington dispatches indicated that authority was given to naval officials to clean up the long-drawn out dispute and return the plants to management.

Also hanging fire are contracts with the Texas Company refinery at Galena Park and the Texas Pipe Line Company, which are both reported about ready for signatures.

350 Employees Affected. The Crown Central refinery will be returned to its management by the navy as soon as the details can be worked out, it was stated. About 350 employees are affected by the contract.

Local 367 of the OWIU, CIO, holds the bargaining agency contract with Shell and Texas Company here. About 1800 employees are the bargaining unit of Shell and 140 in the Texas Company's Galena Park refinery.

MEAT STRIKE

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE for packers heeded appeals of the government officials to meet in an attempt to reach agreement on the wage dispute.

The scarcity of meat became more acute in many sections. Current supplies were shrinking rapidly and continuation of the strike, which started Wednesday, threatened to reduce the country's fresh meat supply to far below wartime rationing, said industry spokesmen. Reports indicated supplies probably would be exhausted within two to 10 days.

Going into today's Washington conference, the AFL Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers Workmen, was prepared to settle for a wage increase of 15 cents an hour and had urged the CIO United Packinghouse Workers to submit a similar proposal.

CIO Holding Out. The CIO union, however, has held out for a 17-1/2 cents an hour wage hike immediately, with later negotiations on an additional 7-1/2 cents, and did not comment on the AFL union's action in lowering its demand. Original demands were for 25 cents an hour pay hikes.

Earl W. Jimerson, president of the AFL union, said the offer by packers of 10 cents an hour was "very inadequate."

The strike hit hardest at Swift, Armour, Cudahy and Wilson—and livestock receipts yesterday, as the walkout started, dropped sharply. At 12 leading Midwest markets, hog arrivals totaled 17,700, compared to 118,849 a week ago.

Market Is Wild. There were scrambles at the market to buy the few animals sent by farmers and most stock sold at about ceiling prices to the small packers not affected by the strike. Meat production slumped, as much as 75 per cent in the big Chicago yards.

The supply of corn on farms will be used up soon if the walkout is not ended, said Mark Pickell, secretary-treasurer of the Corn Belt Livestock Feeders Association.

Mr. Farmer. Bring us your hens, fryers and eggs. We will pay you the highest market price in cash. 210 E. 6th Ave. C. L. McMANUS

CORSICANA SAVINGS LOAN ASSOCIATION RE-ELECT OFFICERS

Officers and directors were re-elected at the annual meeting of the Corsicana Savings and Loan Association Wednesday afternoon.

A. F. Mitchell, F. A. Pierce and Mrs. A. C. Bailey, whose terms expired, were re-named by the stockholders.

Will Thompson, J. O. Burge, F. C. Paul and H. D. Johnson, Officers re-elected were Will Thompson, president, A. F. Mitchell, J. O. Burge and F. C. Paul, vice presidents, and H. D. Johnson, secretary-treasurer.

In discussing 1945, Secretary Johnson termed it "a very good year."

STEEL STRIKE

Fairless has offered to pay 15 cents more an hour but Murray is adamant on nothing less than 19-1/2 cents for his 800,000 CIO-steel workers who are due to strike next Monday.

Conferees at yesterday's White House sessions seemed agreed that the talks would have no change in the situation. Fairless, after consulting other industry leaders was armed with new arguments against the 19-1/2-cent increase. Murray reportedly would not budge.

"Vital to Country." At the start of yesterday's talks, Ross reported Mr. Truman told Murray and Fairless "it was vital to the interest of the country that they reach an agreement."

The afternoon session broke up nearly five hours later, then resumed at 8 p. m. At that time, Ross said, Mr. Truman urged the two men "in very vigorous terms" to come to an understanding.

The President canceled plans to attend a concert with his family and then stood by. It was nearly 9:45 when he sent Murray and Fairless to their hotels to "sleep over it and pray over it."

Fact-Finders Ready. Mr. Truman's fact-finding board, ready to begin hearings in the steel dispute if the White House efforts fail, again postponed action pending the outcome of today's meetings.

After approximately 268,000 members of the CIO-Packinghouse Workers and 9FL Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen walked out at Swift, Armour, Wilson and Cudahy plants yesterday, the AFL union dropped its original 25-cent an hour wage boost demand to 15 cents and urged the CIO union to do likewise.

There was no immediate reply from the CIO which has been insisting on 17-1/2 cents now, with further negotiations for the remaining 7-1/2 cents.

ARMY

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE follow Eisenhower's new order for return of men with 45 points or 30 months service by April 30, and of those with 40 points and 24 months by June 30.

Loss of key men, MacArthur added, already has hindered such operations as signal communications.

In outlining additional demobilization steps, Eisenhower told the committee he had no objection to "Rock Bottom" Ordered.

Directed all theater commanders to "get down to rock bottom" by releasing every possible surplus man and officer.

Ordered to halt to all mass demonstrations by soldiers against demobilization delays.

Directed army inspector generals to visit all army installation and listen to individual complaints of all "junior officers and men" who believe they are not essential and being retained.

Eisenhower's return to Capitol Hill coincided with the army's slashing the army close to its 1919 size.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) urging "the irreducible minimum" in army strength, said he thought it could get along by July 1 with a million men. This compares with 931,422 on the same date in 1919.

Army Plans 1,500,000. The army has been planning for 1,500,000 men by July. Eisenhower informed congress Tuesday that the army's strength on January 1 was 4,200,000, compared with the V-E Day peak of 8,300,000.

Evidently Eisenhower's lengthy report to an informal joint session of Congress Tuesday failed to touch on some matters still troubling the lawmakers, for the special senate military subcommittee on demobilization called him back today. He also was asked to appear before the house military committee next Tuesday.

Eisenhower scheduled a radio address to the nation on the subject for Friday (8 p. m. CST).

"Taking Big Chance." The general said Tuesday the War Department was taking a big chance in lowering army strength to 1,500,000.

However, the subcommittee of which Johnson is chairman entertained hopes of selling the chief of staff some different idea both of the army's size and demobilization.

One proposal which Johnson has ready is that previously exempt single men up to 45 and lots of 4-Fs be drafted to raise overseas replacements.

He suggested that both Selective Service and the army liberalize physical standards and accept thousands of men previously rejected because of minor physical disabilities, such as flat feet.

"Men with flat feet make good policemen," he commented.

The Navarro County Home Demonstration Council will meet at Kinsloe House on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

JAPS

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE case he tried on charges of negligence—that as officers they failed to take certain steps that they have helped prevent the Pacific conflict.

Start in March. The trials are expected to start early in March.

Tojo and his compatriots will appear before an international tribunal, now in the process of formation.

Japanese school children will be told for the first time of the reasons for their nation's defeat when they return to classes within the next few days, after the holiday recess.

Instead of the temporarily banned courses in history, geography and morals, the pupils will be given lessons based upon an American-prepared expose of the war and its foreshadowing events.

Plant Seed Bred for the Southwest

Bryant's Hybrid

The farmer who makes money in the Southwest doesn't plant seed developed for New England or Kansas—he plants seed that has been tried, improved, and proven for the soil and climate in which it has to go. Scientific inbreeding, soil and climate analysis evolved a hybrid corn for Southwest soil that gives 20% to 35% greater yield than open pollinated varieties. A product of years of research.

HERE ARE THE RESULTS

- Bigger Yield
- Fewer Nubbins
- Earlier Maturity
- Better Grain
- Greater Resistance

JAPANESE GUARDS ORDERED KILL ALL ALLIED PRISONERS

BY MORRIS LANDSBERG
TOKYO, Jan. 17.—(AP)—A U. S. navy captain, Texas-born, said today Japanese guards had orders to kill all Allied prisoners of war in event of Allied amphibious or airborne landings in Japan.
Capt. Manuel A. Newman, 47, who said he was the last American officer to surrender on Guam Dec. 11, 1941, told of the extermination plans as he arrived to testify against former prison administration.
"When I read of the war trials," said the captain, "I didn't think convicted Japanese were getting heavy enough penalties. I thought I'd come back and do what I could to see some of them punished."
Of three Japanese tried to date, one was sentenced to death and two were given life prison sentences. Evidence submitted by liberators was through affidavits. Newman may be the first Allied witness to testify in strictly civilian court.
Newman said in an interview that a fellow prisoner on a Tokyo area camp overheard the execution orders read in Japanese to a group of guards. Later, Newman related, his guard confirmed the fate in store for the prisoners when Allied troops invaded Japan.

Capt. Robert McClure, who arrived in Corsicana a week ago from Japan is enjoying a 45-day leave in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McClure.
Sgt. and Mrs. Sidney W. Strength, 717 West Seventh avenue, have gone to Lincoln, Neb. and Chicago, Ill., for a two-weeks' visit. Sergeant Strength has just returned from 23 months service in the Pacific and has received his honorable discharge. He will return here to make his home. Mrs. Strength is on the staff of the Corsicana-Navarro health department and was formerly in the Army Nurses Corps.

WISPS OF HAIR LIKE THAT OF SLAIN GIRL FOUND NEARBY HOME

CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Several wisps of blond hair matching the locks of Suzanne Degnan, 6-year-old victim of a sadistic murderer, have been found entangled in a rough stairway plank at the rear of an apartment building near the Degnan home, police said today.
The building at 6055-57 Winthrop avenue is situated a block and a half from the apartment building at 5901 Winthrop in the basement of which police said the body of the child was discovered.
Detective Adolph Valanis said the wisps of hair found on the stair board established that Suzanne was carried to that spot after she was kidnapped from her bed Jan. 7. It was in that area that police last week found a noose of picture wire to which another strand of yellow hair adhered. Police theorized the wire noose was used to garrote Suzanne before she was dismembered.
Valanis said that before the new wisps of hair were found Mrs. Ruth H. Erickson, of 1055 Glenlake ave., living around the corner from 6055-57 Winthrop told them she had seen a man apparently trying to gain entrance to the laundry room almost beneath her apartment at about 1:30 a. m. Jan. 7.

Dr. Ernest E. Lelsy, professor of American literature at Southern Methodist University, Dallas, has been chosen as the speaker for the LeLiva Club's contribution to the Kinslow House on the evening of Friday, March 22, the date having been changed from March 14.

Consisting of the following counties: Hill, Ellis, Navarro, Freestone, Limestone, Leon, Robertson and Brazos.

In announcing for this office, I am fully aware of the acute situation which now prevails throughout our country.

I feel that I am qualified through training and actual experience to cope with the many important problems which will arise. For seven years I held an important position of trust with the State Treasury Department. While serving in this capacity, I was responsible and held accountable for over $200,000,000 in securities. I had the opportunity to observe the legislature while in session those seven years and learned much about parliamentary procedure.

I volunteered for service with the U. S. Navy soon after Pearl Harbor, serving for three years and nine months. About nine months of this time I served in the Atlantic and thirty months in the Pacific. I enlisted as an apprentice seaman, received five promotions and was discharged as a first class Petty Officer.

I earnestly solicit your vote and influence. Please say a few words in my behalf to your friends and anyone with whom you come in contact. I will be profoundly grateful.

MAY MAKE APPEAL TO CONGRESS ON GI UNEMPLOYMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—At least one veterans organization promised an appeal to congress today from a decision denying GI unemployment benefits to a veteran thrown out of work by the General Motors strike.

The ruling by Veterans Administrator Omar N. Bradley upheld the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission. Asserting the decision may affect "hundreds of thousands" of ex-servicemen, Omar B. Ketchum, national legislative representative of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, told a reporter:

"We will introduce an amendment to the GI Bill as soon as possible so veterans who do not vote for strikes, but are thrown out of work when strikes occur, may collect awards."

The veteran involved in last night's decision is John Cody of Flint, Mich., non-union employee of the A. C. Sparkplug Company, a GM subsidiary.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1. It should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2. Started 3 days before "your time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional, periodic causes.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
